The Emerald Coast ,the realm of luxury holidays

Undisputed capital of the Emerald Coast, Porto Cervo is a coastal fraction of the Gallura municipality of Arzachena, with a few hundreds residents. In summer it becomes an extraordinary and sparkling parade of yachts and famous people: in the small square it is easy to find yourself shopping with movie and television stars. Every day the international jet set meets here: parties, social life, sporting events, golf in particular. An exclusive seaside village, an architectural jewel between natural beauty.
